Hi Members,
 Elizabeth's art is on this Friday!
Below is a message from Sue regarding a show in Newcastle this Saturday 26th March. Anne H

Hi everyone,

Would anyone be interested in going to the Civic Theatre in Newcastle this weekend, (Saturday 26th March), to see the live stage show of 'Mother and Son'? Remember the TV series back in the 80's with Garry McDonald and Ruth Cracknell? I think it should be a hoot! (Synopsis below).
It starts at 2:00pm, we would have to catch the 6:55am train from Mbk, which will have us at the Newcastle Interchange by about 8:30am. We could catch a bus to Kotara Westfield Shopping centre to fill in time, even if we spent a little time on Honeysuckle as well.
We would arrive back at Mbk Train Station at about 7:30pm.
Theatre tickets are $60 adult or $54 concession.

Please let me know as soon as possible if you are interested, they haven't given us much time. Let me know if you're interested in going somewhere to fill in the time.
Send me an email to megarren@gmail.com or call me on 0438 481 216.

Cheers,
Sue

MOTHER & SON

From the creator of the hit TV series comes a delightful stage comedy featuring Maggie, Arthur, Robert and Liz.

Geoffrey Atherden penned the first TV episodes of Mother & Son in 1984, creating an instant classic and award-winning TV series. Now he revisits his famous characters for the stage.

Arthur is at his wit's end and desperate for some time away with his new girlfriend. But who will look after Maggie? While Arthur's dentist brother Robert and his wife Liz claim they'd love to help, Liz has bigger fish to fry.

Is Robert having an affair with his hygienist? Will Arthur get away to pop the question? Will Maggie go on a trip of her own?

Vague but vicious and more arsenic than old lace, Maggie would have Arthur tied to her apron strings for life – if she could just remember where she put that apron!
